

Confidentiality Agreement

I, the undersigned, agree to keep all negotiations and discussions concerning the dental practice(s) presented to me by Thomas & Fees Practice Sales private and confidential until such time that the aforementioned practice is sold or transferred, or until written notice is received canceling this agreement. For the purposes of this agreement, confidential shall mean that no individual, other than the prospective Buyer's broker, accountant, lending institution, or attorney shall be made aware of such information and they shall be further advised not to divulge any information relating to the information to any other person or entity. Further, the undersigned agrees not to contact the dental office, or any of its personnel or referral sources either directly or indirectly without written prior approval..

In that violation of this agreement could cause great financial harm to the dentist owner he reserves his right to obtain damages, as well as punitive damages, for any violation of this agreement against any and all those in violation of this confidentiality agreement.

In addition, since patients' names may be included in correspondence, you agree that none of the patients will be contacted directly or indirectly by you or anyone you have contacted about this practice until you have actually purchased this practice.

Dated: _____

Signed: _____

Print Name: _____